

Simply stated...If you care about freedom of speech, free enterprise and a healthy communications industry that represents all Americans, then your decision is simple. Choose to vote for the existing system and do what you and the FCC are charged: protect all our airwaves for Americans...